

RSV symposium: Pre-meeting to the NZ Paediatric Forum

Date Wed 12 Mar 2025 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Location Clinical Education Centre (CEC), Level 5, Auckland City Hospital

830 Complimentary coffee and tea provided
0900 - 0905	Welcome Chairs	Hazel Dobinson Chair of the I and I SIG Paediatric Society, Paediatric Inf Dis and Paediatrician Wellington NZ, Emma Best Paed Inf Dis Starship and Assoc.Prof University of Auckland
0905 – 0925	Aotearoa New Zealand RSV epidemiology – insights from SHIVERS study	Professor Cameron Grant , Head, Department of Paediatric; Child and Youth Health, University of Auckland
0925- 0935	RSV epidemiology insights from national hospitalisation data	Karen Tustin NZCYES Research Fellow
0935 – 0955	RSV prevention strategies - Maternal vaccine - Infant monoclonals	Professor Peter McIntyre Head, Department of Paediatrics, University of Otago
1000 - 1030	The Australian 2024 experience	Professor Kristine Macartney , Director, National Centre for Immunisation Research and Surveillance (NCIRS), Sydney Australia
1030 Break (fluid timing to accommodate zoom from Australia)
1045 – 1100	What approach to RSV prevention does NZ want? Results from the health care professional survey	Associate Professor Nadia Charania Public Health, Co-Director – Migrant and Refugee Health Research Centre Auckland University of Technology
1100 – 1120	Caring for our high-risk babies this winter Palivizumab criteria & implementation	Professor Jane Alswailer , Neonatologist Auckland Hospital Deputy Head, School of Medicine, University of Auckland

1120 – 1150	Discussion panel: RSV prevention; delivery of monoclonals and/or maternal vaccine to protect some or all newborns	Mamaeroa David General Practitioner, Chair of Aotearoa National Immunisation Technical Advisory Group Claire MacDonald Midwifery advisor, maternal immunisation expert, NZCOM Jutta van den Boom Neonatologist, Head of NICU, Waikato Scott Metcalfe clinical lead - population medicine, PHARMAC Expert speakers Peter McIntyre, Cameron Grant, Jane Alsweller
1150- 1200	Wrap up and where to from here? Advocacy and the Paediatric Society role	Dr Owen Sinclair , Paediatrician, President of Paediatric Society
*Note Medical manager of Sanofi (nirsevimab manufacturer) will be present to answer questions Representative from Astra Zeneca (palivizumab manufacturer) will be present to answer questions		